Turkey Wants No Pan-Islamism

Press Mission Chief Says, Religion Has No Place In Politics

LAHORE, Jan. 28

We are Turks first and Muslims afterwards and we are not interested in any scheme of Pan-Islamic Federation, declared M. Atay, leader of the Turkish Press Delegation, replying to questions by Indian pressmen at a tea party given in their honour by Punjab Muslim Press.

Lt.-Col. Khizr Hyat Khan Tiwana, Premier and Mian Abdul Haye and Sardar Baldev Singh, Ministers of Punjab were present.

NO PLACE IN POLITICS

M. Atay explained that religion was an honourable institution but it was individual and personal and had no place in politics in Turkey.

THEY WANT TO SEE INDIA IN VILLAGES

When it was suggested to them that their's was an official ridden tour and they had not been able to see real India, M. Atay pointed out that they had opportunities of listening to the radical views of both Hindus and Muslims, but they had yet to learn the point of view of the Government of India. He, however, expressed a desire, on behalf of the delegation, to see real India in villages. They were visiting Kapurthala tomorrow to see Indian India, he added.

The delegation spent the day in sight-seeing.

AT PINDI

The delegation arrived in Lahore from Rawalpindi which they left on Wednesday night.

Speaking at a Press Conference at Rawalpindi M. Atay, said:—

"The treaty of alliance between Turkey and Great Britain has stabilised Anglo-Turkish relation in its very sense and its tendency is not only relating to the position in the Middle East for this war but also extending itself to the coming problems of peace and the period following the peace agreements."

NONE HAS ASKED THEM

Asked if Turkey will play the role of a peace-maker in this war, M. Atay replied, "Nobody has asked us, (laughter). Turkey as well as India, he said, were passing through a critical period of this war.

The solution that we have searched for our security is that we must be all unified and act together and postpone all differences till after the war.

We did not accept any differences among ourselves for the last three years. We hope that the people of India too are endeavouring themselves to look to the security of the whole of India and act accordingly.

"Perhaps you have not seen but we have seen it in our neighbourhood, how tragic are the results of war for the countries who entered this war. This is our general feeling, M. Atay added.

At the press conference were present some local Muslim League leaders and when M. Atay remarked that there was a special feeling of brotherhood in Turkey for the Muslims of India and that Turkey could not forget the Indian Musalmans' sympathy towards her, a Leaguer asked "WHY HAS NOT TURKEY DONE ANYTHING FOR INDIAN MUSLIMS WHO ARE AT WAR WITH HINDUS AND THE GOVERNMENT?"

M. Atay replied, "It is an internal question. We have had no occasion so far to express our sympathy as we have not seen India involved in any external question. If Muslims of Hindustan had interfered in our internal politics we would not have liked it at all."

The talk then developed on the position that religion occupies in Turkey. M. Atay said, "Religion in Turkey is only a private affair. It is a question of the conscience of each individual and it has nothing to do with politics, or the administration of the country."

TURKEY GAINED

But there never had been in Turkey, he said, any intervention into the religious belief and practice of an individual.

Replying to another question whether Turkey had not harmed the cause of Islam by taking up Nationalism in preference to Islamic Universalism, he said, "Since the foundation of the Ottoman Empire we have had wars with Persia, our Moslem neighbour.

Till 1912 we had Christian minorities. We lost them. Arab countries detached themselves from us and not we.

We have much better relations with these countries because of our faith in the national principle rather than in a dream of religious universalism.

He said economic consideration occupied a very important place and if a nation had a strong economic platform, the nation got strong.

It was so true that the nations of the same blood, creed, religion and language like Britain and America, Spain and Brazil had separated themselves and had preferred to be separate.

What he wished most for all nations, he went on, was to see them conforming themselves to new conditions of life and strengthening themselves through complete mastery of science, economics and high cultural values so that they might go ahead as the nations of other creeds, religions and races.

This was why our best satisfaction was to see good school, university and cultural institution belonging to Muslims.

Regarding the Delegation's India tour he said "We are not here on any extraordinary or plenipotentiary mission but have come as journalists only and we will take back to Turkey an objective view of conditions in India."—A. P.

WILL TRY TO SEE LEADERS IN JAIL

(From Our Correspondent)

LAHORE, Thursday.

Asked whether they thought their meeting imprisoned Indian leaders would add to their knowledge of India, the leader of the Turkish Press Delegation replied in the affirmative in an interview here.

He also said they might perhaps try to see them if possible.

BACHHARAJ CO. FILES SUIT

Sequel To Confiscation Of Congress Deposit

The Bachhraj and Co Ltd filed a petition today before the Chief Judge of the Small Causes Court, Bombay requesting the Judge for enquiry as to the propriety or legality of the Bombay Government's recent order forfeiting the sum of Rs. 72,000 deposited by the All-India Congress Committee with the Company, and prayed necessary notice might be issued against the Government to show cause why the order be not annulled, set aside or be not acted upon.

The petition stated that a sum of Rs. 70,000 was deposited in the name of the All-India Congress Committee on or about November 3, 1941 when the Committee was not an unlawful association. Interest on the deposit for one year upto November, 3, 1942, was added to the original deposit and at present the amount of the deposit with interest came to Rs. 72,800 against which the order of intended forfeiture was issued.

The Company further stated that the money deposited with them was not being used nor was it intended to be used for purposes of unlawful association.

(From A Correspondent.)

WARDHA, (By Mail).

A Sub-Inspector of Police, Wardha, called on Messrs Bachhraj Jamnalal and desired to confiscate the radio belonging to Smt. Savitridevi Bajaj now in detention at the Central Jail, Jubbulpur. Sri Sambhaji Umre, the representative of the firm, refused to give delivery of the radio in absence of the owner.

The Sub-Inspector then broke open the lock and took away the radio.

It may be recalled that some time back another Sub-Inspector had called on Mr. Kamalnayan Bajaj demanding the radio set for confiscation.

Mr. Bajaj had expressed his inability to give possession of the radio which belonged to his wife who was in jail.

The deputationists, it is learnt, acquainted the Governor with the present food situation in the city and placed their view points in regard to the increased supplies to the city.

Believe It Or Not

COLOMBO, Jan. 28.

By 21 votes to 7 the State Council passed Mr. S. Samarakody's resolution "that as questions arising from Indian immigration are all unsettled and the Governor has stated that there are undertakings which must be considered binding on us and as there is insufficient food in this country no further immigration should be allowed."

The mover referred to press reports that Ceylon was trying to get 20,000 more Indian labourers.

Mr. B. H. Aluwihare declared that they did not want immigration in the present circumstances for any purpose. He asked how such a request had been made without the permission of the House.

Mr. D. S. Senanayake, leader of the House, expressed his disappointment that the resolution had been moved based on a Press report. Replying to a question Mr. Senanayake said that no instructions had been given to Sir Baron Jayatilaka regarding recruitment of Indian labour.—A. P.

STINGING BLOWS AT JAP BASES

LONDON, January 28.

From Reuter's special correspondent at Allied Headquarters South-West Pacific:— General MacArthur's medium and heavy bombers fanning out over an ever-widening area of the South-West Pacific have inflicted stinging new blows on Japan's island bases.

Port Moresby was raided in the early hours of yesterday by three type-one Japanese medium bombers flying at 20,000 feet. They caused only slight damage.—Reuter.

TAKE LESSON FROM RUSSIA

(From Our Own Correspondent)

LONDON, Jan. 28.

When asked whether Government should take the initiative to end the Indian deadlock and what are her impressions of India, Mrs. Beatrice Webb replied:

India is a dreadful problem, there are so many divisions how best to solve it I do not know.

Of course I am a firm believer in racial equality. Russia has solved this question without much difficulty and I think we should take our lesson from her or at any rate we should have regard to the way it was solved there.

I have, however, the greatest possible respect for Pt. Jawaharlal Nehru.

Madras Governor Warns Against Complacency

CHINGELPET, January 28.

H.E. the Governor of Madras addressing a public meeting here yesterday said that Japanese might extend their raids further south to the coast of Madras. It was difficult for them to do so But there was always a possibility that a few bombs might be dropped by an aeroplane or two in Madras or elsewhere and that was why it was so essential for them to keep up their precautions to make A.R.P. a real live thing and not to go to sleep and think that all danger was over. He thought the danger was very slight; but it was always there and must be there until the war was over and he begged the people not to be complacent.

His Excellency said the coast was well defended, defended in every possible sense.—A. P.

SOVIET DRIVE WEDGE BETWEEN NAZI LIFE-LINES

BERLIN SAYS "OUR TROOPS GO BACK FIGHTING"

MOSCOW, January 28.

The Red Army forces closing in rapidly on Rostov from the south-east are to-day driving a wedge across the two remaining German life-lines.

On the Don front east of Rostov to-day's Soviet 'communique' announced: "Enemy resistance has weakened" and recorded the capture of a General and a number of other senior officers.

At the southern end of the advancing arc Gen. Eremenko's forces coming from Salsk are now only 65 miles south-east of Rostov.

RUSSIAN OFFENSIVES ON ALL FRONTS

A supplement to the Soviet 'communique' gives the following details of offensives:—The Don: Soviet troops continued to annihilate isolated Axis groups. Axis resistance has weakened. SOUTHERN: Several Axis counter-attacks were repelled. One unit outflanked an Axis occupied locality and captured it. SOUTH-WESTERN: A battalion of Axis infantry was routed and rich booty captured. VORONEZH: The Axis attempted to stem a Soviet advance in the neighbourhood of two inhabited localities. In another sector 502 prisoners were taken. NORTHERN CAUCASUS: Several inhabited localities were captured. Tank units killed 200 Axis officers and men. In Novo-Alexandrovskaya three trains laden with war material were taken. NORTH OF STALINGRAD: Soviet units continued to press the Axis and wipe out Axis manpower. Rich booty was captured including 214 guns and 5,890 lorries.

The supplement also reports the capture of a General on the Don front and adds: "The number of prisoners is increasing."

MORE TRAPPED NAZIS SURRENDER

Nearly a third of the remaining German troops trapped in Stalingrad were killed or taken prisoner yesterday. In fierce street fighting with exceptionally fierce and deadly artillery fire 350 Germans were killed. This had a telling effect on the Germans in a neighbouring sector, where 2,000 men with the regimental commanders surrendered; 5,000 encircled Germans have surrendered on the Voronej front.

Once again the German command has attempted to send supplies by air to the 8,000 German troops still holding out at Stalingrad. Not a single plane reached the destination.

SOVIET CUT RAILWAY LINE

Soviet forces have made a new advance on the Voronezh front and have reached a point only 75 miles from the great south Russian German base of Kursk. They have cut the main Moscow-Taganrog Railway, 25 miles south of the key-junction of Kastornaya.

In the Caucasus the southern wing of Gen. Maslennikov's army is now closing in from three directions on Kropotkin, the junction 40 miles south of Tikhoretsk. At a point they are only 18 miles away.

NAZI TROOPS "GO BACK FIGHTING"

BERLIN: A German 'communique' says: "At focal points of the defensive battle in the east our armies are holding out against pressure in most difficult fighting and weather conditions. Heavy battles west of Voronej continue with unabated fury. Our troops are going back fighting.

Allies Launch Offensive In Tunisia

Air Raids On Bizerta And South Italy: Axis Destroyer Set On Fire

PARIS, January 28.

The German controlled Paris Radio stated this afternoon that Anglo-American forces concentrated in the regions of Medjez-el-Bab and Bou Arada have begun an offensive against Axis forward positions in Tunisia.

ALLIES BOMB BIZERTA

LONDON: The Algiers radio broadcast today's communique from Allied Headquarters North Africa as follows:

"Activity on the Tunisian front was confined to patrolling. Light bombers and fighters attacked enemy ground targets. On the nights of January 26/27 objectives at Bizerta were attacked by bombers.

Yesterday two enemy destroyers were bombed between Tunisia and Sicily One of these was left on fire.

From these operations one of our aircraft is missing.

Additional reports show that in the attack on Algiers on the night of January 26/27 four more enemy bombers were destroyed making six in all that night."

Allied Patrols Contact Enemy

CAIRO:—Thursday's Middle East joint war communique states: "Yesterday our patrols were in contact with the enemy in Sabratha area. Air activity was on a small scale yesterday and on the night of January 26/27 but successful attacks were made on enemy railway communications in Southern Italy. One of our aircraft did not return from these operations."

(Sabratha is about 45 miles west of Tripoli.)

BRITISH CAR FOR ROMMEL'S FLIGHT

Rommel used a British armoured "Scout" car in his flight from Egypt across the Libyan desert in Tunisia. This information has just been received by the Minister of Supply. It is learned in London The car was captured from the British before the Eighth Army's advance began.

BERLIN & PARIS FORECAST

A new advance by the United States troops in Southern Tunisia towards the rear of the Mareth line was disclosed by a Berlin military spokesman today says Reuter's radio listening post. The spokesman said, "There is evidence that the American High Command is planning a major operation in the south." This might be supported by a simultaneous British operation in the area of Medjez-El-Bab and Bouarada.

The German-controlled Paris radio says that Americans are massing in strong force for an offensive towards Gabes in co-ordination with a British attack from the north.—Reuter.

Free Hand To India Govt.

LONDON, Jan. 28.

Mr. Amery was asked in the Commons to-day by the Labourite Mr. Sorensen to raise the ban on contact between non-Congress representatives and Congress leaders to enable them to discuss possible political developments.

Mr. Amery replied: "Decision in this matter was taken by the Government of India and I see no reason to ask them to reconsider it".—Reuter.

WHEN CHURCHILL WILL TELL IT TO COMMONS

LONDON, Jan. 28.

The leader of the House Mr. Anthony Eden told the Commons to-day that he could give no date for a discussion on the Churchill-Roosevelt conversations in North Africa.

He added: "It will be at the earliest moment when it is literally physically possible."

Mr. Eden said: "For obvious reasons" he could not give the date on which Mr. Churchill would report to the Commons.

Questioned by several members regarding manacling of prisoners, Mr. Eden agreed that the House had been very patient and added: "This is a situation in which we are by no means wasters, but it might be possible to make a statement during the next series of sittings."

Mr. Eden declined the request for an early debate on submarine warfare.—Reuter.

OUR STERLING BALANCES

The rate at which the sterling balances lying to our credit in England are mounting up and its repercussions on Indian finance have created a serious problem which has naturally exercised the minds of our businessmen and economists. The Federation of Indian Chambers of Commerce and Industry took up this question with the Government of India a few days ago. The topic figured prominently in the series of lectures delivered by Prof. C. N. Vakil early this week and was also referred to by Mr. Haridas Madhavdas, the new President of the Indian Merchants' Chamber, Bombay, at the annual general meeting of the Chamber on Wednesday. The balances have resulted from the payments by Britain and other allied Governments for the purchases made by them in India for war purposes. In normal conditions the money payments would have been converted into goods needed by us. But owing to war conditions imports of goods have been difficult; and while the payments are made in London in gold the corresponding payment in India is in silver or notes, largely in the latter. One evil result of this is to increase the note circulation enormously against sterling securities. While the note circulation increased from Rs. 179 crores in August 1939 to Rs. 570 crores in December 1942, the gold and bullion assets remained stationary. Consequently the ratio of gold and bullion to note liabilities has fallen from 24.1 per cent in 1938-39 to 7.4 per cent on Jan. 1, 1943. This in itself is a danger. There is also the danger of the sterling balances in England being dissipated in maintaining impossible exchange rates as was done after the last war. Finally, the enormous increase of note circulation has given rise to a dangerous degree of inflation and a sharp rise in prices.

Tinkering With The Problem

The Government of India are not unaware of the dangers of inflation. But at present they are only tinkering with the problem. In a circular letter addressed to all the interests concerned they have put forward a proposal that "the higher paid wage-earners should agree to defer till the post-war period some part of the extra purchasing power derived from bonuses granted by the employers." Accordingly they suggest specifically that the wage figure of Rs. 50 may be fixed as the level of wages below which no deferment should be considered payable, that 50 per cent of the bonuses should be payable in cash and that the remaining 50 per cent "should be payable to the credit of the employee in a Defence Savings Bank account opened for him in the post office." The employees would not be allowed to draw on such accounts until one year after the conclusion of hostilities except under authority of some Government official in the case of prolonged unemployment. In so far as the plan is meant to benefit the employee, he is better left free to invest his money as he likes. Besides, the proposed plan, apart from its shortcomings, touches but a part of the fringe of the vast problem.

The Only Way

Many things have got to be done, first, by way of speeding up production—on this all economists and businessmen are agreed—and, secondly, by reducing the paper money in circulation. Speeding up production through the development of industries, old and new, is the best remedy from every point of view. To reduce the amount of paper currency in India Prof. Vakil has suggested the following methods: (a) to pay India in durable assets, (b) to raise rupee loans on behalf of the U. K. for her rupee disbursements in India, (c) to pay India in gold and (d) to liquidate British assets in India. He pertinently observes: "Since the accepted method of international payments is goods or gold, it should be possible for the U. K. or the U.S.A. to send to India durable commercial assets, for which rupee investments from private sources would be forthcoming. Industrial equipment has been moved from the U.S.A. to Russia in spite of the hazards of the war. It would not be impossible for a similar feat to be performed by the U. K. and the U.S.A. to enable India to be a more effective partner in the war." We believe these methods will help much both in developing Indian industries and otherwise combating inflation. They will also avert the danger of our sterling securities depreciating at the end of the war or during it course. They are at least worth serious consideration by Government. However, no plan to combat inflation or to deal with India's finances in her own interest can succeed fully without a real National Government responsible to the nation.

The Soviet Drive

While the heads of American and British Governments were engaged in planning to open fresh fronts to secure the encirclement of the enemy, the Red Armies have been occupied in decimating, by sledge hammer blows, one after another the divisions of the enemy which for months past had entrenched themselves in their steel and concrete fastnesses. The latest reports reveal a dismal picture of the remnants of these divisions. The region immediately to the west of Stalingrad has proved a veritable death-trap to over a hundred thousand troops. The last few thousand of these doomed soldiers are now being mopped, if they have not already been all killed or made prisoners. All dangers to Stalingrad, on which Hitler has set his heart in an evil moment, has, thus, been removed to the eternal glory of the Red Army on that front. On the other fronts, too, in the north, the centre as well as in the south, the drive against the enemy is proceeding exceedingly satisfactorily. The fall of Kursk, Kharkov and Rostov, the three key towns on the Ukrainian and Caucasian front, will be only a question of a few weeks, should the present speed of the Soviet drive be maintained.

Unity Among Fighting French

The report coming from London that two separate "liaison missions", one accredited to General Giraud and the other to General de Gaulle, will be set up in London, does not speak well for the unity of the French ranks outside Europe struggling for the liberation of their country from the Nazi yoke. Though the earlier reports coming from North Africa suggested that agreement had been reached between the two rival Generals, it now turns out that so far only unity of purpose in military and economic matters has been attained and that agreement on political questions is still far off. Of course, further exploration of the possibilities of a complete political agreement is suggested, but one wonders whether such agreement will be secured so long as the post-war aims of the rival French factions differ as they do and so long as the leaders of these factions are loth to surrender to one or the other the reins of power they have secured in the different theatres of war. It is evident that Giraud imagines that he is the master of the situation in North Africa and that the other theatres of operations, like Syria and Central Africa, do not matter so long as he holds the whip hand in North Africa. General de Gaulle and his friends are obviously in the shade at present. The lack of unity among the Fighting French is highly regrettable. It is to be hoped that before long the breach will be filled up by the elimination of all discordant personal factors.

YEAR TO WREST INITIATIVE FROM NAZIS

LONDON, Jan. 28.

The "Evening Standard" war reporter, Leslie Randall who has been examining some of British Government's anti-U-boat proposals, says to-day that he believes the initiative in the war on shipping can be wrested from the Germans within a year or eighteen months.

To this end he writes:—

"We must revolutionize our merchant ship-building programme. We want cargo warships not torpedo-lodger. The cargo warship must be fast enough to outdistance the U-boat. The towering masts, funnels and all unnecessary superstructure should be eliminated. There must be no telltale smoke and the hull should be as explosion proof as possible. U-Submarine detection devices should be fitted and the ship should have a flight deck so that one or more airplanes could be carried for reconnaissance and attacks on U-Boats."

Such a ship has been designed by Mr. W. S. Burn, member of the Council of the Institute of Marine Engineers, which has surveyed national resources and reported that it is quite possible to provide the necessary number of high-speed engines.—Reuter.

Frankly Speaking

Progress In Turkey

All Indians, whether they be Muslims, Hindus or of any other denomination, will do well seriously to ponder over the observations made by the leader of the Turkish delegation at the Press Conference held at Rawalpindi. The Turkish nation, by a supreme effort under the dynamic leadership of Mustafa Kemal, Esmet Inonu and a few others, has made enormous progress and to-day it is able to hold up its head to the proudest and mightiest among the nations of the West, who for decades past had despised it as the "Sick Man of Europe". The causes of this amazing transformation and the factors which have enabled the Turks to maintain the solidarity of their nation and the stability of their Republic, were summed up by M. Atay in his replies to questions put to him at the Conference. "As a nation we have had the experience during the centuries of quarrels and fighting with neighbouring Europe and we at last came to the conclusion that there was no other way for our salvation and independence than to get the scientific 'tinge'". M. Atay's friendly advice to Indians to conform themselves to the new conditions of life by strengthening themselves, like the Turks, through complete mastery of science should be accepted by Indians with gratitude.

Friendly Advice

M. Atay also laid emphasis on the fact that his countrymen put more faith in nationalism than in a dream of religious universalism. Religion in Turkey is only a private affair," he remarked, "It is a question of the conscience of each individual and it has nothing to do with politics or the administration of the country." Indian communalists who do not hesitate to break one another's heads and endanger the peace and safety of the country in the name of "religion" should mark and digest this fact. "The solution that we have searched for our security is that we must all be unified and act together and postpone all differences till after the war," said M. Atay. "We did not accept any differences among ourselves for the last three years. We hope that the people of India, too, are endeavouring themselves to look to the security of the whole of India and act accordingly". No more sagacious and timely advice could have been offered to Indians by any genuine friend of theirs than this. Would that it finds an adequate response among the leaders of this country torn at present by internecine squabbles!

A Committee of the Central Assembly and the Council of State to examine the system of control of necessaries of life and report by the middle of March on how to ensure an equitable distribution of these articles is suggested by Sardar Sant Singh in a resolution admitted for discussion in the Assembly. Mr. Neogy in a resolution wants steps to be taken to secure an adequate and steady supply and circulation of small coins and in a second resolution asks that the present ban on emigration of Indian labour to Ceylon should not be removed or relaxed without bringing about a just and honourable settlement concerning the status and right of citizenship of Indians in Ceylon.

How Civic Standing Committee Functions

How the Standing Committee of the Municipal Corporation functions could be well illustrated by the incident which took place on Thursday afternoon. After the withdrawal of the Municipal Nationalist Party from the Municipal Corporation in August last difficulty arose in regard to the quorum, but it was got over by amending the law thereby reducing to four. But now every week the question arises as to who should preside over the thin meeting consisting of four members, all told!.

After about half an hour of haggling as to who should preside, and after one of them was persuaded to return from the tea room to make a quorum, the Standing Committee was able to meet. These delays have become usual even with the Corporation meetings.

GOEBBELS CALLS FOR MORE GIGANTIC SACRIFICES

BERLIN, Jan. 28.

Dr. Goebbels in his weekly article in "Das Reich" says: "It is demanded by national morale that to-day every German man from 16 to 65 and every woman from 17 to 45 shall be compelled by law to contribute by work and exertion to war. "We must hold in readiness for the Fuehrer, an operative reserve completely prepared for all eventualities of the war.

Sacrifice Of Women

Soldiers who have to go to war must immediately be replaced by men and women still outside the industrial process. Millions of German women in the most varied walks of life have for years now been doing war work and in addition have had to care for children.

These women have a right to demand of us that they should not shoulder the burdens of war alone but that all who, until now have done almost nothing for war, should share their lot.

Measures which are about to be taken in the near future will delve deeply into the life of the individual and sometimes into the life of German family.

But what is this when compared with the gigantic sacrifices which the front has to make daily? We at home are doing our most elementary duties when we step to the side of our soldiers and give all our strength to bring about victory.

Entered Grim Stage

The war has entered its most grim stage It therefore demands a preparedness which cannot be surpassed by anything. The German people have still more strength than they are apparently aware of, and in any case more than is being at present brought into play so as to give a decisive turn to the war.

Only a generation of steel will go on living in the hurricane of our time. Its courage must be unshakable."—Reuter.

Bombay Stock Exchange

Mr. K. R. P. Shroff, President, Native Share and Stock Brokers' Association, writes:—

I refer to the glaring misstatement regarding wastage of paper on the Stock Exchange, which appears in Dim's "Half Column" in to-day's "Chronicle". It is true, of course, that members have been recently notified to use a new kind of contract book. But this is not even half the truth. The order applies only to a small batch of securities in Section VIII of our List; for all the other securities in Sections I to VII, the old books have still to be used. The notice in question says so in as many words. Dim should be careful in what he reads and even more in what he writes. Not one of the 5,000 or 6,000 books of 100 pages each will go to the scrap heap, as he suggests. On the contrary, an enormous quantity of paper will be saved, for the hundreds of tickets a member had to issue in every clearing under the old system will now be no longer necessary. Paper has been conserved, not wasted, by adopting the new form of contract book. Whether "vandalism" or not, I agree with Dim that paper wastage in these days is criminal. Why then does Dim not realise it himself when wasting his Half Column on unfair and misleading criticism?

War Fund Amateur Boxing Tournament

The War Fund Amateur boxing tournament will commence to-night (Friday). There will be fourteen contests. All the competitors would appear to be well matched in respect of both weight and experience and some very good bouts can confidently be expected. O/A. A. G. Harrison, of the Royal Indian Navy, now finds himself in a position to box in the light weight division and he is of course well-known to the Bombay public. Pte. A. J. Hawkins, of the Wiltshire Regiment, is unable to compete owing to an accident during training but his place in the middles will be taken by Pte. J. Wilson, of the Essex Regiment, who has the reputation of being an experienced boxer well able to give a good account of himself. Cpl. M. Lowther, of the Royal Air Force, the A.B.A. Light Heavy Weight Champion in 1941, will now meet another light heavy weight in Pte. B. Hall of the Staffordshire Regiment, in place of Spl. C. W. Steele, of his own Service. Pte. Hall held the Army Middle Weight Championship of India for three years and he was runner-up for the Light Heavy Weight Title in 1938.

TÊTE-À-TÊTE

WITHOUT COMMENT—

"When Englishmen tell us that we must help them to bear the burden of Asia if we want India free Isolationists among us come to new life. We see in India, thanks to England's emphasis on all possible differences there, something even more trouble-some than Europe. We Americans really have no wish to take our share of the whiteman's burden. There never was white man's burden, except in the sense the white man made a burden for himself by trying to force his rule upon reluctant peoples."

—Pearl Buck, famous American author, in a speech at Indian Independence Day dinner in New York.

At the Indian Independence Day meeting in London, Lord Farrington declared that "the majority of the English demanded Indian independence."

Long live Britain, the home of democracy, where the will of majority prevails—except where India is concerned!

This London meeting, we learn, "commenced with National Song and reading of the Independence Pledge."

In Bombay, too, a meeting on the Marine Drive commenced in the same manner—and the nine women who participated were sent to jail!

CAPE TOWN, Jan. 27.

General Smuts asking the Assembly on Wednesday to approve a bill allowing the dispatch of South African volunteer troops outside the African Continent said that there was prospect of an early and complete expulsion of the Axis from Africa.

Does he really have to ask for the Assembly's permission to send out the troops? Our own Viceroy and C.-in-C. can send Indian troops anywhere on the face of the earth without even informing the Assembly.

One Nazi unit has surrendered in Russia.

Goebbels will perhaps now find that they were all Jew sheep—in wolves' clothing!

The Turkish delegates, at a press conference, urged Indians to be united.

Another protest from Muslim Leaguers to the Government of India?

Bombay women are demanding to be made jurors.

We welcome the suggestion.

Hitherto each of them has been judge, jury, prosecutor and executioner rolled into one.

(2) Defending the Government position regarding the absence of R.A.F. raids on Rome, Mr. Eden said: "Rome was not built in a day—and it cannot be bombed in a day, either!"

(3) The Muslim League, at its next session, will completely endorse the statement of the Turkish delegation on the question of mixing religion and politics.

NEW YORK COTTON MARKET

Bombay, Jan. 28.

On Wednesday, the New York cotton market opened at about the highest level of the day and closed at the lowest point. The early advance was influenced by a favourable interpretation of the Casablanca meeting between President Roosevelt and Mr. Churchill, but prices reacted on increased hedge selling and long liquidation, partly by easiness of other markets and continued uncertainty over farm price development.

COTTON PARITY

The recent official tilts to commodity speculators, firstly the fixation of the maize ceiling and secondly the release of Government wheat stocks aroused some nervousness that a similar action might be taken to keep cotton prices near parity Moreover, the market professes some disappointment over loan differentials, but all are outweighed by the growing belief that the farm bloc will secure a favourable compromise or outright adoption of its parity revision proposals which might raise cotton parity about two cents a pound

At the opening March was quoted 15 points higher at 19.84 and there being no demand prices assumed sagging tendency throughout the session. March declined to 19.71 and the market closed irregular at a rise of 3 points to a decline of 4 points. Spot cotton was one point higher at 21.43c. per lb

The New Orleans cotton futures market also after firm opening closed unchanged to 4 points higher. Spot cotton was unchanged at 20.35c. per lb

CONSERVE
YOUR FLASHLIGHTS & BATTERIES

FLASHLIGHTS & BATTERIES have become an absolute necessity to the war effort and to the civil population. On the front lines they are indispensable to the troops. Behind the front lines they are indispensable to the A.R.P., Railways, Police, Hospitals, Industry and other essential services. The civil population require them for use in blackouts, air-raids and emergencies.

Flashlights will become more and more difficult to obtain and the supply of batteries, although steady, is limited. Severe shortages may occur temporarily, which may be attributable to war demands, shortages of raw materials or delays in shipments due to railway restrictions imposed by war conditions.

We strongly advise, for your own welfare, that you take every precaution to conserve your flashlight and batteries. A few ways of doing this are:

1. Remove exhausted batteries from your flashlight immediately or they will swell and permanently injure it.
2. Use your flashlight sparingly.
3. Your batteries will last longer if you do not keep your flashlight turned on for long periods of time but merely 'flash' it on from time to time long enough to see your way, turning it off again immediately.
4. Do not hoard batteries in reserve—they will deteriorate on your shelf and by hoarding you prevent someone else from obtaining enough.

IN THE INTERESTS OF THE PUBLIC WE ANNOUNCE THAT THE FOLLOWING ARE FAIR RETAIL PRICES:—

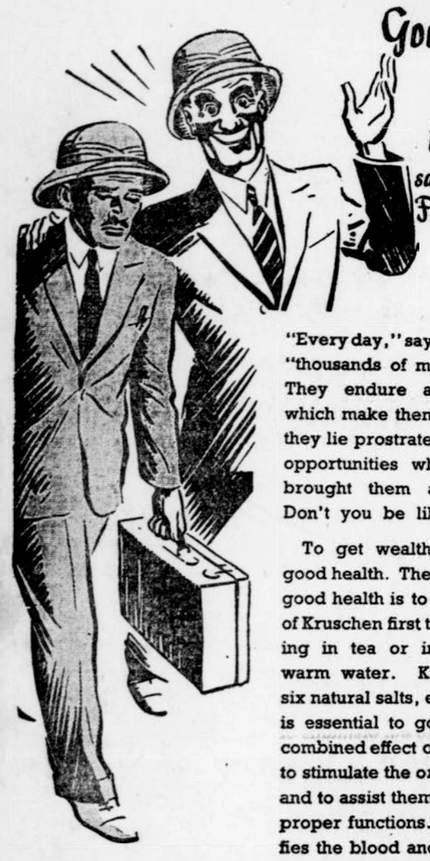
THERE'S WEALTH IN HEALTH

Good Fortune favours the fit.. says Father Kruschen



"Every day," says Father Kruschen "thousands of men lose money." They endure aches and pains which make them invalids. While they lie prostrate in pain they lose opportunities which would have brought them a cash reward. Don't you be like them!

To get wealth you must have good health. The best guarantee of good health is to take a little dose of Kruschen first thing every morning in tea or in half-a-glass of warm water. Kruschen contains six natural salts, each one of which is essential to good health. The combined effect of these six salts is to stimulate the organs of the body and to assist them to perform their proper functions. Kruschen purifies the blood and helps the body to eliminate those poisons that are sapping your energy and killing your mentality. Get a bottle of Kruschen now at your chemist, store or bazar, and see how soon you will become fighting fit.

Pearl Buck said in New York a few days ago: "...There never was a whiteman's burden, except in the sense the white man made a burden for himself by trying to force his rule upon reluctant people?" Apparently the Fifty Facts about India didn't get to Pearl Buck. The British propaganda machine in the U. S. seems awfully weak on the subject of India. How else could intelligent persons like Pearl Buck make statements like that? Hasn't she ever heard about the immortal and unending TRUST etc.....etc.....etc.? One of these days I expect to see the Bombay Branch of the U. S. War Information Office raided under the Defence of India Rules, for distributing pamphlets about Freedom from want and fear and all the revolutionary ideas these Americans have been spreading in India, thus making the work of the loyal administration more and more difficult...under the Defence Rules.

GET BACK THE HAPPY DAYS OF YOUTH
BY REJUVINE COURSE

Loss of vitality has attacked no other country as severely as India and nowhere else one meets the preplanned general loot by quacks as here.

Have you not yet realised these facts even after losing your money and health through their deliberate falsehoods and treacheries? Keeping in view this ruination of the Nation's health the Ayurvedic and Unani Philosophers have in collaboration devised this treatment for loss of vitality, general debility, nervous breakdown and weakness. This cure has rejuvenated millions of men and restored the peace and happiness of thousands of ruined homes. Those who were dying of youth knocking at every door shedding tears on their own follies, are now proud fathers of healthy children and happy husbands of admiring wives.

HOW TO REGAIN YOUTH?

The wonder is that youth is restored in 7 days but strict self-control is to be exercised during this period otherwise the secret of cure is rendered ineffective. So only those should use this medicine who can promise this self-control. A great miracle makes its appearance on the very first day. All that is required is to store it and then for years you will not experience any loss of vigour again. There are two medicines, one for internal consumption and the other for external application. The complete course is known as REJUVINE. The very first dose of internal medicine begins to work wonders as if complete transformation has begun. The medicine for application also shows its miraculous effects from the very first day. Man is stupefied because electric waves and a sea of force and vigour burst forth. Even if a healthy man uses this course, he will enjoy youth to the full.

Price complete course Rs. 5|-. Postage -|8|- extra.

This course will be sent to those who promise to exercise complete self-control.
